

QUICK QUIZ

Given that we may well be in "lockdown" for some time here is a quiz as an isolation activity. All of the questions can be answered from our website but will be known to most regular attendees at our talks and walks. We will put the answers on the website a month later.

1. Which famous artist lived in this pleasant house?
(west of Hammersmith)

Hogarth's House built about 1717 and bought by Hogarth in 1749. He is buried in nearby St Nicholas Church.

2. Who is this lady and what did she do?

(snappy outfit!)

Christina Broom was a widow who took over her husband's business and became a celebrity photographer; capturing the military and Queen Victoria for posterity.

3. What did this imposing gent do?
(Mr W Bird JP )

The Bird family were local builders with a great deal of development in Hammersmith and William became a pillar of local life and was a JP

4. Where and what church is this?
(Clue 4 weddings & a funeral!)
St Bartholomew the Great next to Barts Hospital. Used in many films including 4W&F.

5. Where and what is this building?

This is the Tower at what remains of Croydon Airport, the birthplace of British air travel.

6. Where is this decorative panel?
(note the pigeons!)
The Albert Memorial, one of the four detailed panels celebrating Prince
Albert's areas of interest.

7. In which city church is this appalling clash of styles?

This is St Stephen's Walbrook where the building dating to 1428 with precursors back to Roman times, suffers a Rococo pulpit and a 20th century concrete altar!

8. What was this building and what happens there now? The lens may distort this large building.
(Clue funds to fabrics!)

The V&A Clothworkers Centre Blythe House
former Post Office Savings Bank.

9. This cemetery is unique why?
and what is its Royal connection?

West Brompton Cemetery was nationalised!
It is policed and maintained by the Royal Parks.

We hope you enjoyed this and it just illustrates how varied our events, visits and talks have been. Perhaps we will try another quiz if the lockdown continues.